

Find Someone Who:

Agrees with your answers

		True	False
1.	Studies suggest that fewer than 10% of children are involved in Bully/Victim problems in Elementary or Middle School
2.	Most victims of bullying report being bullied by large numbers of their peers.
3.	Bully behavior often involves more than physical contact.
4.	The vast majority of children who are bullied tell a teacher or other member of the school staff.
5.	Male bully behavior differs from female bully behavior.
6.	Bullying is just as likely on the way to and from school as during school hours.
7.	Most students who observe bullying don't think they should get involved.
8.	Once a bully, always a bully.
9.	Peer pressure can both hinder and support school climate change.
10.	Teasing is the beginning of bully behavior.		