Spotlight on a PBIS Coach

Coach Anthony Lee Goods
 Watson Elementary
 P.E. Teacher/Anti-Bullying Coordinator

Coach Goods' Favorite Thing about PBIS:

- Absolutely the best reward/incentive framework I have ever been a part of!
- The inclusion of parents is positive especially when awareness and involvement are critical for the overall success of this wonderful framework!

Coach Goods' PBIS Coaching Tips:

- Hang in there!
- Trust the process!
- Don't give up!
- #SOAR 😊
(Safety, Ownership, Attitude, Respect)

"Doubt is failure before the beginning of anything attempted." –Coach Goods

Coaches tip: Spring into Positivity!

Try this exercise:

1. Spend 3 to 5 minutes in each school setting.
2. Count the positive student interactions and negative student interactions.
3. Divide number of positive student interactions by number of negative student interactions.
4. Report results to SW-PBIS team.
5. Brainstorm ways to increase positive interactions in all school settings.

Data Reminders

- ❖ What is the overall pattern of office discipline referrals?
- ❖ Have we improved since last year?
- ❖ What should we do differently?
- ❖ What data should we review to make a good decision?
