Spotlight on a PBIS Coach

Position at School:

Counselor at Harrison Middle School in the Harrison School District

Trent Brewer

Favorite thing about PBIS:

My favorite thing about PBIS is it focuses everyone's efforts to look for and acknowledge all the positive things students are doing. It also makes teachers more aware of how they are speaking to students. Words matter.

Mr. Brewer's Coaching Tips:

Be available and provide transparent communication about successes and struggles the PBIS team is working through.

Remember in October...

- Review discipline data from the past month
- Review your current school-wide action plan based on data
- Modify your school-wide action plan based on a precise problem identified from the data so that it includes
  - ⇒ Measurable goal
  - ⇒ Timeline
  - ⇒ Assigned tasks
- Distribute minutes to all team members within 24 hours

Coaches are the champions of PBIS in schools!

Individuals who provide coaching supports and functions meet with school teams as frequently as monthly for newly implementing school teams, and as infrequently as quarterly for established teams.

The primary objective of a PBIS Coach is to provide prompts and reminders of important implementation activities.
